TRADE MARK

The Pass of Killiecrankie, from Garry Bridge. is one of the most popular excursions in the neighbourhood, and deservedly so if only on account of the great pictorial merit of this magnificent specimen of the Scottish glen. Here, through the midst of a glorious confusion of rock, trees, ferns and heather, the River Garry finds its way, at one time broadening into a deep, quiet pool, and at others rushing with tumultuous speed and grand effect through narrow gaps between the rocks.
